

"Father, this just doesn't sound very Catholic?"

Deacon John reflected last week on our parish's quest to move from Maintenance to Mission. He reflected on the Transfiguration Experience on Mount Tabor and the Holy Father's words on the New Evangelization in Evangelii Gadium (Joy of the Gospel). "Every Christian is a missionary to the extent that he or she has encountered the love of God in Christ Jesus: We no longer say that we are "disciples" and "missionaries" but rather that we are "Missionary Disciples."

Obviously, if we accept the Holy Father's invitation to be Missionary Disciples, then the first questions that arise are:

What is a Missionary Disciple?

What do they do?    How do they live?    How do they witness?

A good place to start would naturally be our Holy Father Francis, himself. He is not just talking about Missionary Disciples --- he is showing us what it looks like to be one! At 80 years of age, he is leading powerfully and setting a profound example of what it means to "be in Jesus Christ."

The Lineamenta document produced in preparation for the 2011 Pope Benedict visit with the bishops of the Philippines defines the goal of Evangelization as the "realization of a personal encounter with Jesus Christ in the Spirit, thereby leading to an experiencing of His Father and our Father." (#11) Evangelization is always Trinitarian: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Most commonly it is experienced as bringing people to Jesus Christ, having first experienced Him through the power of His Holy Spirit, then helping all truly know the Father! Subsequently, in Benedict's meeting with the bishops, he said to them, "Your great task in Evangelization is therefore to propose a personal relationship with Christ as key to complete fulfillment."

On April 11, 2014, Pope Francis tweeted, "Only trust in God can transform doubts into certainty, evil into good, night into radiant dawn."

Being a Missionary Disciple is not about knowing, it is about having a personal relationship with Him -- That is what ChristLife is all about! -- That is what our lives are about! --

Yet, one of the great obstacles (one of many that we need to identify openly and honestly as we move from Maintenance to Mission) is the number of people who continue saying:

Father, this just doesn't sound very Catholic.

PASSION & PURPOSE

Matthew Kelly live in Madison

March 11, 2017

About 100 people from our Parish attended the Matthew Kelly event “Living Every Day with Passion and Purpose” last Saturday at Madison-Central High School Auditorium. More than 800 people were there from across the state, and a few from out-of-state. The 4 1/2 hour program was split up with breaks to process the message and music by inspirational singer Eliot Morris.

This was a great opportunity for our Diocese to host a Catholic international speaker. He travels every month to different communities trying to help re-energize the Catholic Church, and help more people discover the “genius of Catholicism” as he says. That’s why he formed Dynamic Catholic. Our Parish has given out many of his books and CDs over the years.

Here is some feedback from our St. Paul family:

“We were so excited to be there! The Young Adults Group has done two of his book studies and we watch his videos. He is so down-to-earth and relatable.” Lexie Gosselin

“It was better than I thought! I really enjoyed it!” Mary Henry

“It did my heart good to see that many Catholics gathered in the room to learn to live their faith with passion. It shows me evangelization is possible.” Cecilia Carlton

“I thought it was great! As I looked at all those people, I thought this must be what Heaven is like. A room full of people who love the Lord, most I didn’t know. But, familiar faces were sprinkled around the room!” Paula Fede

“I’m in the process of reading the book we got at Christmas, Resisting Happiness,” and I watch some of his videos. He is one heck of a speaker, and I gained an insight into some things I can think about and do every day to be a better Christian and Catholic.” Kenny Weikum
