

The Biggest Lie in the History of Christianity Advent 2020 Book Study

III. Reflection & Questions for Week Three — Rejoice in the Lord always!

- ➡ It seems universally understood that the world need changing.
 - Do you agree the world needs to be transformed?
 - Do you believe you can help change the world?
 - The everyday Holy Moments of ordinary people like you and me is what will change the world again.
- ➡ Nobody is in a better position to change the world than Christians.
 - Rather than retreating from the culture, Christians can make the world a better place by spending together and working side by side.
 - The early Christians changed the world once, and they left us a blueprint.
 - Is the way you are living, working, and loving different because you are a Christian? Does it show?
 - Are you willing to astound the world with your generosity, kindness, patience, courage, thoughtfulness, and selfless care for the weak, poor, and forgotten?
- ➡ Christianity gives people hope for this life and the next.
 - Read pages 74–77 to see the ten things Christians can speak powerfully and practically to people about and change the world....again.
 - Whenever and wherever you find men, women, and children striving to create Holy Moments, Christianity has always thrived.
 - On the flipside, life loses its flavor when we are just sleepwalking through life, completely unaware of the extraordinary people, moments, and possibilities that surround us.
 - Are you ready to create Holy Moments, and experience some everyday miracles in your life?
